The Family

The family is like a book
The children are the leaves,
The parents are the covers
That protecting beauty gives.

At first the pages of the book
Are blank and purely fair,
But time soon writeth memories,
And painteth pictures there.

Love is the little golden clasp
That bindeth up the trust,
Oh! break it not, lest all the leaves
Should scatter and be lost.

Wrinkles That Will Help Remove the Frowns

To Clean Felt Hats.

Rub corn meal carefully into the felt, and remove with a soft brush. Rub the entire hat with fine sand-paper and if leaves that hat like new.

To clean White Furcloth

Brush the cloth the way of the nap, dip a clean sponge in alcohol and wash thoroughly in the direction the nap goes. Have mixed one part powered borax and three parts powdered starch, and sprinkle on while the cloth is wet, all it will hold. Leave in a clean place for three days, then brush out all of the starch.

To Freshen Velvet

Spread a cloth wrung from cold water on top of a not too hot range, or over an inverted flat iron, spread the velvet over it and brush with a whisk broom. Velvet can be made to look like new.

Flowers For Winter

Save the most perfect buds of the desired flowers, cut with a three inch stem and cover the end immediately with sealing wax. When they have shrunken some, wrap each one in a piece of paper and keep in a dry box. When ready for them in winter, take them at night cut off the ends, and place in water containing a little niter of salt. The following day the flowers will bloom as though just picked.

To Root Oleanders

Cut off a strong slip, cut in the end and fill full of cotton, wrapping paper around it so it will not touch the bottle, and put in a bottle of water in a dark place for a week. It should have plenty of roots by this time, and is ready to plant carefully in rich soil. Other woody plants may be rooted in this way.

Joke of the Week

The fact that corporal punishment is discouraged in some public schools is what led Harry's teacher to address this note to the lad's mother: "I regret very much to inform you that your son, Harry idles away his time, is disobedient, quarrelsome and disturbs the pupils who are trying to study their lessons. He needs a good whipping, and I strongly recommend that you give him one.

Whereupon Harry's mother responded as follows: "Dear Miss Jones: Lick him yourself. I ain't mad at him. Yours truly, Mrs. Smith.

Good Things to Eat—And How To Make Them

Jellied Supper Salad

2 Tablespoons Gelatine
¼ cup cold water
2 cups chicken broth
Sliced chicken
1½ cups mixed vegetables (peas, carrots, string beans, etc.)
2 hard cooked eggs
1 pimento

Soak gelatine in cold water five minutes, and dissolve in hot chicken broth (canned may be used) Cool dip loaf pan in cold water and decorate bottom with slices of hard cooked egg and pimento cut in fancy shapes. Cover with a thin layer of chicken broth and let stiffen. Then arrange the chicken and vegetable in alternate layers, pouring a little broth over each layer and allowing it to stiffen before adding the next layer. Letting the pan stand in ice water will quicken the process. Chill thoroughly. Remove from the mold and cut in fairly thick slices. Serve the individual portions in nests of lettuce leaves with Mayonnaise Dressing. The above recipe will serve six nicely.

when judgement reigns supreme again and reason has its sway, and investigation is made to inform the people of the facts to which they are entitled, much can be said of the transaction of Herbert Hoover."

He also referred to bill appropriating one hundred thousand dollars for a monument to be erected at the Surrender Grounds, for which he had worked.

The speech was delivered at twelve o'clock, between the sessions of court. C. W. Smith, Clerk of the County, called the meeting to order, and R. L. Burce was chosen permanent chairman. Mr. Burke introduced Senator S. L. Ferguson, who in turn introduced Congressman Tucker.

Mr. Tucker was accompanied by his secretary, Mr. Herbert L. Smith, of Lexington, Va.

SOUTH BOSTON DROUTH MEETING

providing relief for the farmer in the drought stricken areas and of the machinery that was being set up for relief work in Virginia. He also told of the Red Cross plans that were being worked out by the State Chairman, R. H. Angell, of Roanoke.

In discussing the plans of the State Committee, Mr. Hutcheson stressed the point that every county must realize that self-help is always the best help, and that an appeal for outside aid should only come as a last resort and when every other possibility has been exhausted. He said, "we, of course must provide in an adequate way for those who lack food, fuel and other necessities of existance, but this help should only be given when every effort has been made to provide these necessities, and it should be rendered in such a way as to not pauperize or establish a system similar to a "dole."

MEETING CONSIDERED SUCCESS

The opinion was expressed by several at the meeting that there is no reason to fear that any suffering will occur from lack of food, fuel or other necessities, but the distribution of such supplies should be carefully supervised and such aid only rendered when essential.

It was the consensus of opinion that the meeting was a success in every way and the county chairmen and their committeemen left South Boston feeling that they were in much better position to solve the drought relief problems of their respective counties.

Arrangements for the South Boston meeting were under the direction of J. T. Lacy, Jr., Chairman of the Halifax County Drought Relief Committee and Secretary W. H. Alexander of the Halifax County Chamber of Commerce, who is assisting in drought relief work in Halifax County.

AUTUMN

By Mary Louise Gills

The tall trees sway with gentle grace;
Etched softly gainst the sky's sweet face,
On every breeze there flutters down
Whether in vale or crowded town,
A shower of mingled green and gold;
A thing of beauty to behold!

With sobbing breath they touch the earth,
Forgetting that in wondrous birth,
Their dust shall bloom in lusty. rare
When Spring hath made the world all fair.
The birds shall change to requiem song!

The frost lies white on each plain,
Traced lightly on the window pane;
The shrill wind whines around the eaves
And rustles 'mong the dried sheaves,
But on the hearth glows warm and bright
The cheerful glow of candle light!

KELVINATOR'S latest and greatest achievement . . . the new YUKON model

$159.50 F.O.B. FACTORY

TO YOU, Kelvinator presents the new Yukon Model as the crowning achievement of sixteen years of leadership in electric refrigeration development. Here is quality refrigeration at the price countless thousands of families have been waiting to pay.

The Yukon has real beauty—the beauty of massive strength plus finely proportioned design. The exterior finish, unsurpassed steel, is special white enamel—a Kelvinator development. Chrome finish hardware harmonizes with the cabinet design. Inside, the Yukon is white porcelain, with all corners rounded.

FIVE CUBIC FEET OF FOOD STORAGE SPACE

There are five cubic feet of interior space—over nine square feet of shelf room—ice cube capacity of four pounds at a freezing (42 generous sized cubes).

Freezing speed is adjustable to five positions, regulating the rate of freezing in the preparation of all kinds of frozen desserts and dainties. There is a conveniently placed defrosting switch and heavy glass defrosting pan.

You need not be a refrigeration expert to realize that the new Yukon Model is an amazing value. One look at its substantial proportions, its gleaming finish, the thickness of its heavy door, the roominess of its interior—and you will know that here is the electric refrigerator you have been waiting to buy, at the price you have wanted to pay. You can see it today—come in.

Purchase of the New Yukon Model is made easy by Kelvinator's ReDiCo Monthly Budget Plan, providing for convenient monthly payments.

WHAT'S HAPPENING IN VIRGINIA

Officials of the State Department of Agriculture have announced that the fall army worm, which already had been ravaging many crops in Southside and Eastern Virginia, has appeared in large numbers on the Eastern Shore. The worm is a species of caterpillar which is always more or less provalent in the Eastern half of the Old Dominion, but which becomes vastly more numerous at intervals of every ten or twelve years. This year one of its periodic outbreaks has occured.

Department officials also declare that continued lack of rainfall in most of the region east of the Blue Ridge, coupled with the recent heat wave, has greatly damaged much of the recently planted crimson clover, together with some of the Abruzzi rye, both of which were planted with a view to fall grazing and spring hay, and both of which have been attacked by the fall army worms, as well as injured by the weather.

Prohibition as now enforced is "a farce" in the opinion of J. C Morgan, of Fairfax County, Socialist candidate for the United States Senate, who addressed a gathering of 25 persons at a Socialist rally in Richmond. He advocated a referendum of the people of the people of the United States to ascertain the true sentiment on the question. D. G. George his campaign manager, assailed Senator Carter Glass for his support of Judge John J. Parker, of North Carolina, of the United States Supreme Court.

Twenty persons were injured some seriously, when a Richmond-Washington bus ran into a tree near Hybla Valley, Va. The injured were taken to Alexandria. Eyewitnesses said the bus was traveling at too high a rate of speed to round a curve successfully, and that it struck the tree in consequence.

Congressman H. St. George Tucker, in an address before a Democratic rally at Staunton said he would not be greatly surprised to see the Democrats gain control of the House of Representatives this year, and possibly of the Senate as well.

J. D. Bowen, aged Westmoreland County farmer, killed himself because, according to reports, he had become despondent over the drought. He was found on the floor with a wound in his head and a revolver clutched in his hand. He died in a Fredericksburg hospital without regaining consciousness.

Higher rates on shipments of live stock in carload lots from points in West Virginia and Virginia to Eastern cities and from points in West Virginia to points in Virginia were announced by the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway. H. E. Ketner, commerce counsel to the State Corporation Commission, who already has protested to the Interstate Commerce Commission against the existing rates, will file a further protest against the proposed increase. He says it appears to be about 2 cents per 100 pounds more than the present rate. The C. & O. is seeking to make the rate effective on October 15.

Facing "starvation prices" for their tobacco this fall, twenty-three tobacco growers in Brunswick County have secured articles of incorporation for an organization to be known as the United Co-operative Tobacco Growers. The association will seek members throughout the tobacco belt. Officers are, B. L. Lafoon, Dan-ielltown, president; J. R. Hardie, Danielltown, vice-president; J. Garrett Walker, Danielltown, secretary-treasurer.

Forest View

We certainly hate to give up our former Editor, Mr. A. D. Clement, but wish him much success where ever he goes. We welcome our new editors to Appomattox, and hope they will succeed in their new undertaking.

The weather has charged very much from the hottest day last Friday to very pleasant weather, but every thing needing rain.

Mrs. R. W. Martin continues about the same. She is under the doctor's treatment and we hope she will soon be feeling better. Her two daughters, Mrs. B. C. Sims, of Lynchburg, and Mrs. M. W. Hunter, of Gladstone, have been with their sick mother several days.

Mrs. Sims accompanied her husband, B. C. Sims home last Monday.

Mrs. W. C. Lee returned to her home last week after spending a week with her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Woolridge, of Grifton, N. C., and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Martin spent last Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Wooldrige Sunday night they accompanied Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Wooldrige a visit in the home of J. A. Martin.

Mr. and Mrs. Wooldrige returned to their home last Monday by way of Lynchburg where he had business to attend to.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Nash and children visited their daughter, Miss Perlie Jones last Sunday.

Miss Annie Martin, of Petersburg, who spent the summer with her sister, Mrs. J. E. Martin in Roanoke, has been visiting her old friends in the county and is now visiting Mrs. J. A. Martin.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jordan and children attended the reunion at the home of his father, in Charlotte County recently. The children were all present but the grand children were present except one. Plenty to eat and all had an enjoyable time.

We understand Mr. J. B. Marshall has bought the home of Mr. Z. M. Jones and we welcome this couple back to their old neighborhood.

Liberty Baptist Church
[W. M. Thompson, Minister]

An Automobile Sermon

Did you ever stop to think about the points of similarity between an automobile and a church? Well, there are at least nine points of resemblance and Rev. W. M. Thompson, pastor of Liberty Church, will discuss them in his sermon Sunday night at 8 o'clock. The sermon will probably be illustrated.

The Sunday school and the B. Y. P. U.'s will meet as usual. The morning worship service will be followed by a business meeting. Matters of great importance to the congregation will be presented. What is your church doing with your money? Come and hear all about it.

The subject for the Wednesday, 8 P. M. Prayer Meeting is "Some Things the Prohibitionist Should Never Forget."

A glad hand awaits all who come.

Rev. W. M. Thompson is conducting Revival Meetings at Evergreen this week. He will preach the dedicatory sermon at Union Hill Church Monday morning, Oct. 6th.

ZACHARIAS AND ELISABETH: LIFE IN A PIOUS JEWISH HOME

LESSON TEXT—Luke 1:5-80.

GOLDEN TEXT—And they were both righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Helping to Make Our Homes Good.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Helping to Make Our Homes Happy.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—I Owe to My Home.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—What Makes a Home Christian?

I. A Godly Husband and Wife (Luke 1:5-7).

The name Zacharias means "Jehovah hath remembered," and the name Elisabeth means "A covenant maiker."

1. When they lived (v. 5).

"In the days of Herod the king." They lived in a time when godlessness was rife. The priesthood was corrupt, and the ruling classes most wicked.

2. Their character (v. 6).

Both were righteous before God. Many appear to be righteous before man who are not righteous before God. They were so mated that when both husband and wife are united in Jesus Christ. Their practical living was manifested in obedience to God's commandments.

3. They were childless (v. 7).

Though this godly couple were well mated and possessed the joy of the Lord in their souls, there was a real lack in their home. No home is quite ideal into which no child has come.

II. A Son Promised (Luke 1:8-23).

1. By whom (vv. 11, 19)?

Gabriel, a special messenger of God, appeared and made known the good news to Zacharias.

2. Wher (vv. 8-14)?

While officiating as priest this good news came to him. From verse 13 the implication is that Zacharias had been praying definitely about this matter. While he burned incense, which is typical of prayer, the multitudes without were praying.

3. Characteristics of the child (vv. 15-17).

(1) Shall be great in the sight of the Lord (v. 15).

Though the people did not greatly esteem him, he was highly esteemed by the Lord.

(2) Shall drink neither wine nor strong drink (v. 15).

He was to be a Nazarite, separating himself from sensuous things and dedicating himself unto the Lord (Numbers 6:1-6).

(3) Shall be filled with the Holy Ghost (v. 15).

The energy of the divine Spirit was needed to enable him to lead the people to repentance (v. 16).

(4) Shall go in the spirit and power of Elijah (v. 17).

In this power he was to prepare the people for the coming of the Savior, and the salvation which he was to bring.

4. Zacharias asking for a sign (vv. 18-23).

Although the aged priest was earnestly praying for the salvation of Israel, the gracious promise of the angel which was the beginning of that salvation staggered his faith. The angel gave him a sign. Because he refused to praise God in faith for this gracious promise, God caused his tongue to be silent until the promise was fulfilled. God wants us to believe His promises no matter how contrary to reason they may seem.

III. The Promise Fulfilled (Luke 1:57-60).

1. Neighbors and kinfolk rejoicing with Elisabeth (vv. 57, 58).

2. The child circumcised and named (vv. 59-63).

On the eighth day they circumcised the child and named him "John" (v. 13). By means of writing Zacharias made known the name which he would have by divine instruction.

3. Zacharias praises God (v. 64).

At this time God opened the mouth of Zacharias, and he offered up praise to God.

IV. Zacharias Prophesying (Luke 1:67-80).

1. Praising God for fulfillment of the promise of salvation (vv. 67-75).

This was according to covenant promise.

2. John to be called "The Prophet of the Highest" (vv. 76-79).

He was to go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways.

3. The growth of John (v. 80).

He grew and waxed strong in the Spirit, and was in the deserts till the day of his showing unto Israel.

Revival Is Held By Presbyterians

The revival in progress at the local Presbyterian church is being well attended and the people are manifesting interest in the services. Dr. W. F. Garrison is the speaker at both the morning and evening hours, which are 10 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Each evening the congregation reports the number of chapters read in the Bible that day. Dr. Garrison is a resident of Crozet, and is Supt. of Home Missions, having taken the place left vacant by the death of the late Dr. Bridgeman.

constipation

"I HAD a stubborn case of constipation after a very severe spell of grip," says Mr. John B. Hutchison, of Neosho, Mo. "When I would get constipated, I'd feel so sleepy, tired and worn-out.

"When one feels this way, work is much harder to do, especially farm work. I would have dizzy headaches when I could hardly see to work, but after I read of Black-Draught, I began taking it. I did not have the headaches any more.

"When I have the sluggish, tired feeling, I take a few doses of Black-Draught, and it seems to carry off the poison and I feel just fine. I use Black-Draught at regular intervals. It is easy to take and I know it helps me."

This medicine is composed of pure botanical roots and herbs. Contains no chemicals. In 25-cent packages.
